

Terms & Conditions

1/ General Provisions, Scope

(1) These General Terms and Conditions regulate membership in BankingBridge, a student initiative striving towards providing entrepreneurs in the developing world access to banking services

(2) Membership grants access to the community and its offerings but does not entitle members to financial returns, distributions, or profits.

2/ Contract Conclusion and Right of Withdrawal

(1) Membership is established upon acceptance of a membership application by the company and the timely payment of the membership fee.

(2) Right of Withdrawal: Members who are consumers have the right to withdraw from the contract within 14 days without stating reasons. The withdrawal period begins on the day the contract is concluded. If the member does not withdraw in the given timeframe he is liable to pay the quarterly membership fee.

(3) To exercise the right of withdrawal, the member must submit a clear written statement via email. The withdrawal statement must be sent to:
jules.van.remootere@gmail.com.

(4) If a membership fee is not paid and the member has not withdrawn or terminated the contract, the membership will remain active. BankingBridge will inform the member of the outstanding payment and provide a reasonable period to settle it. If the payment is not made within this period, BankingBridge may use the initial deposit to cover the overdue amount.

3/ Membership Fees and Payment Terms

(1) Membership requires the payment of a fee to finance the lending operation, particularly for lending capital and field officer salaries

(2) The membership fee is €25 and is to be paid every 3 months.

(3) Membership fees already paid are non-refundable in the event of early termination, except where a refund is required by applicable law.

(4) Payments can be made via bank transfer, SEPA direct debit, or other payment methods offered by BankingBridge

4/ Termination of Membership

(1) Membership is concluded for an indefinite period and is automatically renewed for successive three-month periods unless terminated in due time. No separate notice of renewal will be provided.

(2) Termination must be declared no later than 21 days before the start of the next three-month billing period. The date of receipt of the termination notice is decisive.

(3) Termination must be submitted in written form, either by email to the official company email address (jules.van.remootere@gmail.com)

(4) If the termination notice is submitted too late, it will only become effective at the end of the following billing period. Partial refunds of already paid membership fees are excluded.

(5) Voluntarily leaving the community or properly terminating the membership does not entitle the member to any refund or profit distribution.

5/ Warranty and Liability

(1) Bankingbridge does not guarantee uninterrupted availability or error-free operation of its platform and content.

(2) BankingBridge founder & CEO, Jules Van Remootere, is liable only for damages caused by intentional or grossly negligent conduct.

6/ Data Protection and Confidentiality

(1) BankingBridge processes members' personal data exclusively in accordance with applicable data protection laws, particularly the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

(2) Members consent to the storage and processing of their data for membership administration purposes.

(3) Personal data is not shared with third parties, unless legally required or necessary for membership operations.

(5) The full privacy policy is available on the Banking Bridge's website.

7/ Changes to the GTC

(1) BankingBridge reserves the right to amend these GTC.

(2) Members will be informed of changes in a timely manner. If they do not object within four weeks, the changes are considered accepted.
